

Create High Performance Through Humanity

with David Mead

SHORT FORMAT
🕒 15 min

Join David Mead, co-author of the best-selling book Find Your Why, for a short format 15-minute webinar on bringing humanity back to leadership. With experience working with over 350 companies across 23 countries, David will share how focusing on trust and connection can drive high performance within teams.

Session Highlights:

- Learn the three essential traits of great leaders: Discover the human qualities that make great leaders stand out.
- Create an environment of trust and connection: Find out how you can foster a workplace where people thrive.
- Elevate your leadership through humanity: Understand how leading with empathy and authenticity can naturally lead to higher performance.

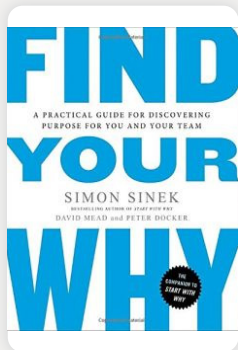

Watch recording:

 YouTube

 vimeo

Extra content:

 Slides

About David Mead:

As a leadership consultant, speaker, and co-author of Find Your Why, David Mead helps leaders transform their approach to business by focusing on the human element. He has shared his insights with companies around the world, helping to create more connected, high-performing teams.