

How To Connect Effectively Across Cultures

with Tayo Rockson

Connecting across cultures can be enriching and educational, yet also challenging. Markets, worldviews, customs and traditions often become barriers that prevent people from developing cross-cultural relationships.

How do you connect effectively across cultures as a leader, teammate and participant in a multicultural workplace? In this webinar, diversity consultant and podcaster Tayo Rockson shares best practices for opening dialogue, building trust and finding common ground with people who have different values and belief systems from us.

In the webinar, you will learn how to:

- Become more self-aware of your communication style.
- Communicate clearly.
- Act appropriately with people who come from different environments.
